IR-Assignment 2
Arpan Mukherjee
Roll No – MT17007

For the same query in vector based document retrieval tecnique more relevant documents were retrieved rather than tf-idf based document retrieval , because in vector space model we are computing continuous degree of similarity between queries and documents. Basically we are retrieveing the documents in their possible relevance order, so it's providing a better result.